

Inklings

Book Club Discussion Guide

The following discussion guide is intended for use by bookclubs who meet after having read Inklings. It is designed to bring back memories of the book and its storylines as well as insure lively discussion and provide fodder for continued thought.

The arc of the story in Inklings follows the apostle Paul's prayer in Ephesians. A good starting point is to pray it with or for the participants in your book club.

I ask...

that the God of our Lord Jesus Christ, the Father of glory, may give you the spirit of wisdom and of revelation in the knowledge of him, having the eyes of your heart enlightened, that you may know what is the hope to which he has called you and what are the riches of his glorious inheritance in the saints.

Ephesians 1:17-18

To invite Prince for a FaceTime visit with your book club, please email her at linda@lpprince.com

1. Who was your favorite character and why?

2. What were some of your favorite phrases?

3. What about Prince's writing style did you like?
Did you dislike?

4. The book contains several deep and several far reaching storylines. What was one of the deep or far reaching themes you noticed?

5. Did you learn anything or were you reminded of something you had forgotten? If so, what?

6. What surprised you in the book? ... about the book?

7. If you could change one thing in the storyline, what would it be?

8. Have any of the lessons or phrases stuck with you? If so what and how will you apply them to your life and calling?

L.P. Prince